

FAQs

What does Sanjeevora vidya mission focus on?

Our work spans five core areas: education assistance, nutrition support, skill development, career readiness, and community welfare initiatives — all directed towards children and young adults in need.

Is my contribution considered an investment?

No. All contributions are voluntary and intended solely for charitable, educational, welfare, and community development purposes. They do not constitute an investment, equity participation, ownership interest, or promise of any monetary return in Sanjeevora vidya mission .

What is your refund policy?

All contributions are voluntary and generally non-refundable once processed. Exceptions apply in the case of a duplicate transaction or a verified technical error. Please reach out to us at hello@sanjeevora.org for such cases.

What information do you collect and how is it used?

We may collect your name, email address, phone number, and inquiry details. This information is used solely to respond to your queries, share initiative updates, improve our website experience, and manage volunteering or partnership requests. We do not sell or share your data with third parties

.How does sanjeevora vidya mission maintain transparency?

sanjeevora vidya mission is committed to maintaining transparency across all community initiatives and operational activities. We communicate openly about how contributions are used and welcome questions from our supporters at any time.

EDUCATE, ELEVATE, EMPOWER